

Mr. Stanley J. Rudick, had been active in the child operate a full - time day care facility in Northeast Baltimore, near Harford Road. Recognizing a growing need for a quality after-school program, to best serve working families, "Mr. Stan" founded what is now Harford Heights Child Care, Inc. Expanding on the traditional model his father began, Stan added before and after school care as well as school break camps.

Since his death in 2015, Mr. Stan's family is proud to continue the family tradition: offering parent's peace of mind that their children are well cared for by exceptional staff in a fun, safe, and caring environment!

